as The renewing of

certaine Orders deviled by the special commandement of the Onemes Maiestic, for the reliche and stay of the metent beauth of Graine inthin the Realmer in the petre of our Law
1 886.

Nowe to bee agains executed this present yere 1594. Upon like occusions as were seene the sormer yere.

with an addition of some other particular operation in Sectionation of the great abuses in Sie-boules and such like:

Imprinted at London by the Deputies of Christopher Barker, Printer to the Queenes most excellent Maiestic.

.certaine Orders depissed by the spe.

or interaction Danier by abe Danner of Christophica Barbar, Princer to the Openes and the Marches.

The renewing of certaine Orders deuised by the special commandement of the Queenes Maiestie, for the reliefe and stay of the present dearth of Graine within the Realme.

Hat the Shiriffe and Jutti That the Juces of the Deace hal immediately byon the receipt of felues into thefe orders, affemble them to execute felues together was much speede as they possible may: And having conferred as moalt themselves byon the contents bereof. Mail first for the better execution of the same, divide themselves into funder companies, and take amonged them into their charge by feverall divisions all the Hundreds. Rapes, 02 Mapentakes of the faid Countie.

Item, enery companie so allotted out, shall To appoint south with direct their Precepts but the Shis to inquire of riffe to warne the high Constables, bnder Constables bereaf Cables, and other the most honest and substantiall inhabitantes within the same Pundzed, Rape, or Wapentake, to the number of exchi. persons, moe of fewer, as the quantitie of the Bundzed, ftices thall bis uide thems fundip partes thele orbers.

Dimozed, Rape, or wapentake that require, to appeare befoze them at a certaine place, and within as thost time after the receipt hereofas they conveniently may, a boon the apparance of the layde persons, they thaildivide them into so many Juries, as they thaildivide them into so many Juries, as they thail thinks meete, giving instruction to the late Shiriste to returne as fewe of such as be known great Farmours for Corne, or that have store of graine to sell, as the can. And such of the persons so warned as thall not appeare, but make default being some moned, and not having any just or reasonable excuse alowable by the Justices, to be punished therefore at the good discretions of the Justices, both by Amprisonment and Sine, before whom they are to appeare.

Item, they shall first declare to the parties appearing, the cause why they are sent so,, and there with earnestly charge them in the seare of God, to apply themselves to the service where unto they shall be now called, with all duetistic nesse and diligence, and without any partialitie to any person, and then they shall give them the othe following.

The Iuries Othe.

The Other of the Jurois, with charge to enquire what number of persons be in the houses of them that have stope of Come.

You hall sweare acthat you shall enquire, and make true and due search and triall, what number of persons every housbolder that bath Come in their Barnes, Stackes of other where, as well Justices of the Peace as others whatsoever, within the Parish of bave in their bouses feeding, lying, and bysiting, or otherwife to bee

fed:

fed: what number of Acres they have certaine. ly to bee somen this yeere with any manner of Graine: what bargaines they have made with any person sozany hinde of Braine to bee solde. by, or to them: to whome and by whom, and byon what prices they have made the fame, and what quantitie of any manner of Graine, thep, or any other have in their Barnes, Grais ners, Loftes, Cellors, or floores, or otherwise to be delivered buto them boon any Bargaine.

Item, what number of Badgers, Kidders, for Bab Broggers of Carriers of Come inhabite with gers, aid das in the layde Parish, and whither they doe ble to riers of some carie their Come which they doe buy, a where they doe blually buy the same, and what their names bee, and howe long they have bled that trade, and by whose Licence, and to see the same Licences of what tenoz they are of.

Item, what number of Mault makers, 28a, spank mas hers, common Brewers of Tiplers dwel with and Blewers. in the layde Parith, and who they are by name, and howe long they hatte bled that trade, and howe much they bake or brewe in the weeke. and what other trade they have whereby o therwife to live.

Item, who within the layde Parith bee the Einers of areat bupers of Come, 02 doe ble to bup, 02 have againe, bought any Come of Graine to fell againe, of have folde it againe lince Abidlommer laft.

Item, who within the same Parish buyeth Bupers of Counc upon of have bought of folde any Graine byon the the ground. grounde, of whome, and to whome hath the same bene bought or solde, and at what price, and to certifie buto bs of the Pzemilles, and of euerp every part thereof, on the day of now nert comming: And to ettery part of thefe Articles you thall bring answere from point to point.

Mgainst such as thall refule, to beclare the trueth of the matters ins quirable.

And if any hall refuse to declare the trueth. of,02, concerning the premiffes, or of any part thereof, to any the Jurours afozelayde, requiring the same for their better information: the Aurours hall bee informed that fuch person buon the information of the fard Aurour, thall bee convented before the Austices of the Beace of the layde Divilion, or any two of them, and harply rebuked, or if neede be, punished for his contempt. And if the partie to called in queltion , thall not declare the full trueth thereof to the layde Justices, be shall be committed by the faid Juffices to the common Gaile as a perfort bound for his good behautour, and to to be continued without Baile, butill he thall conforme himself therein, or otherwise at the discretions of the faid Austices, be thall be bound in a good fumme of money to make appearance before the Lozds of her Maiesties privie Counsell to ans the Counsaile. Iwere buto his contempt in that behalfe, for further punishment and fine, for ensample of at fuch disobedient persons.

Barties ofe fenbing to aps peare before

M confiberati. pu of all pers fong that haue Come,to bes termine home themarkets with fuch poitions as thep map fpare.

That the faide Justices of the Beace having received into their hands the berdict of the faid Juries answering to every poynt of their thep that ferue charge, thall call at certapne dayes by them to bee affigued fuch persons before them of every Parith, as byon the presentment so made thall appeare to haue Come to spare, and bpen due confideration of the number of persons, which every person bath in his house, according to their qualities, and of the quantitie of Graine, that the partie hath towarde the finding of the same, or otherwise to be spent in his house and sowing of his groundes, allowing to every Pouleholder for his expenses in his house, sozewery person thereof according to their qualitie, sufficient Come for bread and deinke betweene this and the next Paruell, and for their feede after the rate of the fowing of that Countrey byon an Acre. And then they thall binde all fuch as thall appeare to have moze of any kinde of Braine, then thall ferue to the bles aboue mentioned, aswell Justices of the Peace as others, by Recognizance, in some good reasonable some of money, to observe the orders enfuina, biz.

The doe knowledge your selfe to the some of owe buto our Soueraigne La sauce to be freely taken. die the Queenes Paiestie, &c. the fumme of De condition thereof halbe, that if ye hall well and truely without fraud, couine, 02 collution, and without any maner deceite oz craft fulfill, observe and keepe, all and euery fuch orders, appointments and directions, as thall at this prefent bee by bs on her Maie-Ries behalfe prescribed and eniopned buto you to be by you done and fulfilled: Then this Recognizance to be boid, oz els to fland in fozce.

The orders to be observed,

are these, viz.

Dibers to be obferneb bp fuch as thall be appointed to ferme the Markets with Come for the retiefe of the poote people

D B hall bring, or cause to bee brought weekly so many quarters or buthels of corne, as wheat, Rye, Barley, Mault, Peazon, Beanes, oz other Graine, oz so much thereof as thall not bee directly fold to the pooze Artificers of day Labourers of the Parish within which you dwell, by order of the Justices of the Peace of the Division within which you dwel, or two of them to the Market of there to be by you, of at your allignement folde buto the Queenes subjects in open Warket by halfe Quarters, two Buthels, one Buthell of leffe, as the buyer that require of you, and not in greater quantitie, except it be to a Badger oz Carrier of Come admitted according to the flatute, ozto a common knowen Bzewer oz Baher, having testimonie bnder the hand and seale of such two Justices of the Peace at the least of the division, or of a Waior or other head Officer of the City, Cowne, 02 Bozongb corporate where heedwelleth, that hee is common Bzewer oz Baker within the same: oz to such other person as hall make promision for any Lord Spirituallor Temporall, knight, or any other Gentleman that hath no provision of Come, so as the same person have and thew but to fuch person as thall have the overlight of the Market in that behalfe, testimonie bider the hand and seale of the partie for whom hee com. meth to the Market to make that provision, declaring

Co whome Coine Chall be folb after that the poole are ferneb.

claring that it is for the prouttion of his house, and contaminathe quantities and hinde of Graine to bee prouided: And you hall not willingly leave any part of your Corne to brought to that Market busoide, if money bee offered to you for the same, by any that are permitted to buy the same, after the bluall price of the Mars ket there that day, as long as the Market that laft.

Deither that you from the beginning of the hought to the Darket, to the full ende thereof, keepe oz caufe market uns folde, to bee cas to be kept any of your faid Come out of the ope ried out of the light of the Darket: neither hall you carry towns. away from the Market Cowne any kinde of Graine that was brought thither which pour have not there folde, but hall leave the fame there in the Market Towns in some place knowen, lo as it may be brought into the oven Market the next Market day at the first opening of the Warket, there to bee soide as afoze was limitted. And yet neuerthelelle, you half being to the Market such other quantitie of Graine as thall be limitted, and lo continue at every Warket day the bringing into the open Market, the quantitie of Come that thall be lis mitted.

Also you hall not buy any maner of such home to buy Graine as we hal appoint you to fel, from this fuch kinde of doine as they day for wardes, but byon bery especiall and nes thall bring to cessarie cause to bee allowed by bs, butill such warrant byon time as all and every fuch maner Graines as reasonable we at this time thall appoint you to fell, be accoeding to our appointment and oeder by your folde. And if you wall not fowe so much this fel, but bp

veere

peere as the Jurie hath presented that pee intend to sowe, or if you nowe have, or shall have knowledge, or shall gesse hereafter at any time, either by threshing of the Mowe or Shocks or otherwise, that yee have more store of any manner of Graine, then the Jurie hath presented but o bs: that then ye shal forthwith byon such knowledge thereof had, make true relation thereof but o bs, or but o two of bs both what portion of your seede Corne shall be left busowen, or what further quantity you shall perceive you have, then was at the sirst presented.

That so some as you perceive you spend not after the rate of so much Come as wee have limitted but o you for the finding of your house, yee shall make true report but o bs or two of bs, how much leffe pe spend.

No come to be bought for to fell agame. Pee hall buy no Come to fell it againe, neisther hall you by any colour directly of indirects ly, appoint any your fernants, of any other person to be a Badger of your Com, other then to carry your Come to the Market there to bee solde as your owne, without changing of any propertie.

No Coin to be bought but in open Parket.

Dee hall neither buy not fell any maner of come, but in the open Market, builde the same bee to some poose handicrastes men, of day labourers within the Parish wherein you doe dwell, that cannot conveniently come to the market Townes, by reason of distance of place, according to such direction as shalbe given but to you in that behalfe by by the Justices of the Peace of that Division, within which you doe dwell, of two of by, and to none of these above one buthel at a time, and thereof you that keepe or cause to be kept aparticular note in writing to whom you hall so sell weekely, and at what vices, loas the fame may appeare to the Jufti-ces to be done without fraud oz abufe.

That the Justices of the Peace within their Inquirie to severall Divisions have speciall regard that be made as Ingroffers of Come be carefully feene buto, groffers. and inquilitions to be made for knowledge of them, fo as they may be seuerely punished according to the law : And where such are found, to make Certificates of their names and dwels lings, and of the proofes to the Queenes Mas iesties Atturney generall for the time being, who is directed speedily to informe against them for the same, and to fee that none be permitted to buy any Come to fell againe, but by speciall licence, and that of all maner of licences by Judices of the Beace or by any other authoritie, the parties that thall have such licen= ces, that cause an entry to be made in the books of the Beace remaining with the Custos Rotu- Un orber for lorum , oz the Clerke of the Deace , fozentrie from the Jus wherof the party thal not pay about two pence, fices of the peace, to bee and thereof the Custos Rotulorum, 02 the Clerke kept in a rethall keepe a good Register to be the wed to the Austices, whensoever they shall require the light thereof.

That they take order with the common Ba Regard to the kers for the baking of Rie, Barley, Peale, and keeping of the Beanes for the ble of the poore, and that they appoint speciall and fit persons diligently to see the people well dealt withall by the common Bakers and Brewers in all Townes and places in their weights and Allizes, hauing also regard, that the Deputies of the Clerke of the Market do not abuse themselves in bulawfull exactions for meight and Deafure, and effecs tually to inquire for and fearch out the default therein, and therupon to give order for punity. ment of the offendor feuerely, according to the Law: and where any notable excessive offence halbe in the Bakers, to cause the bread to bee folde to p poozer fort buder the ordinary prices.

file of bread.

as inpart of punishment of the Baker.

Mo 2Babger to bup Come but mopen Market, and with fufficient ting.

2Bread faultie in amp erceffe

to be fold tos

pooge.

wards the res hefe of the

That no Badgers of corn, Bakers or Brew. ers buyany Braine, oz commune oz bargaine for the same, but in the time of open Markets. licence in wis and that but by Licence bider the hands of the Auftices of the Divilion where they doe dwell, or three of them, and that they weekely bring their Licence with them to the Barket where they do either buy orfel, or els not to be fuffered to buy any: And that the Licence containe how much Braine, of what kinde, a foz what place they are licenced to buy and carp, that there be fet down byon the Licence in writing, the day, place, quantitie, and price at which the Come is bought, that they take but measurably for the carriage, baking, and bewing thereof, that they hewe their bookes weekely to fuch as the Justices of the Division wherein they dwell, hall appoint for that purpose being no Bakers or Badgers of Come, and that those within euery ritti. dayes make report to the Justices of the Dinision wherein they dwell, howe the people are dealt withall by the Badgers, Bakers, and Brewers, and that fuch as have fut ficient ficient to live on, oz that are knowen to bee ofamy common euill behaufur, bee not permitted to bee Badgers of Come, of which fort commonly the report is that there are too many, and therefore the same would be remedied and foreseene: Also that no Badgers beevermitted but fuch as the Statute doeth limite, and that fernant to be no feruant of any bee licenced to bee a Badger, none orber, except are of the Judices at the least thall in that be licented open Sellions for fome necellary caufe allow a, in open Sellis my fuch, and that none at all be allowed a Badaer, except he be allowed in oven festions, a not to be, as it is in many places, abused for gaine of the Clerke of the Deace, or a Justices Clerke graunted without allowance of the rest of the Tuffices in their open Sellions, and further, ho Babger, Baker, Bew. moze, that none be permitted to buy oz prouide er, or purueps Come in the Market in groffe, as a Badger oz Graine, until Baker, Bzewer, oz Purueyour and luch like, an houre after byon paine of imprisonment, butill one houre her beginne. or more after the full Market be begunne, that the poore may be first ferued.

The 23abs gers to them weekly their bookes of buping.

That the faid Auflices, or two, or one of them some Justis at the leaft in every Divition, thall be personal fent in the ly present at every market within their several market, to see Divilions, during the whole time of the Mars liened byon het, to see the orders to be taken by the authoris prices. tie hereof to be wel observed, and the pooze peo: ple protrided of necessary Corne, and that with as much favour in the prices, as by their ear: nell perswallon of the Juffices can be obtained. By this it is not meant to charge any Lorde of Parliament being a Justice of Peace, to attende bpon any fuch feruice in any Market, other:

otherwise then it thall be with his owne good will: but in all other causes tending to the erecution of these orders, it is hoped that every person of any estate, will readily give aduise and alliftance.

Where Tus flices are wanting in any Hundied, fome rich pers the want.

Af there hall be any Hundred, Rape, or mai ventake within the favo Countie, within the for to appoint which or neve thereunto no fufficient number fous to happin of the land Austices of the Beace do dwell or inhabit, the fard Shirife and foure Austices of the Beace of that Countie, thall in that case aps point some other honest Gentleman, or the high Constables buder Constables, or fuchos ther, grave, honest, and substantial persons, not being Come masters, dwelling within the faid Hundred, Rave or Maventake, as they that by their discretions thinke convenient, to have the charge, boing the execution of these orders there: whom they that allo intruct how to erecute the same diligently and buzightly.

That mini-Acre and pleas there erhost the richer fort to be libes rall to helpe the poore with monp of bics tual necbful.

That all good meanes and perswasions be bled by the Austices in their feverall divisions, and by admonitions and exhortations in Sermong in the Churches, by the Preachers and Dinisters of the 10020, that the pooze may be ferued of Come at convenient and charitable vices. And to the furtherance thereof, that the richer fort be earneally modued by Christian charitie, to cause their Graine to be solde bnder the common prices of the Warket to the poorer fort: A deed of mercy, that will doubtleffe be rewarded of Almightie God.

That there be no buying or bargeining of any kinde of Comebut in open Market, and that that the Justices in their leneral Divisions, re-Araine common Maulters of making Barlie To make spault of otes Mault, in those countrepes and places where in countreps there be Dates fufficient to make Dault of for hath bene ble the ble of the people, and to restraine as well the brewing of Barley Mault, by or for Ales houses or common Tiplers in those Countreis and places, as also the excelle ble of any kinde of Dault, by alcommon Brewers, Daulters, and common Tiplers, according to the true meaning of this Article: And that the bnneces fary number of Alebouses and common Tip. lers be footh with suppressed in all places, and that direction bee given to all Tipling houses, Tauernes and Alehouses, not to suffer any perfong to revaire thither to eate and drinke at but feafonable times, 02 to continue in fuch houses longer, then to satisfie their necessitie of eating and dzinking.

That the Juffices ble al other good meanes howard of possible that are not mentioned in these orders, inperfluonity, that the Markets may be well ferued, and the penfe thereof poore relieued in their prouisions during this of people. time of dearth. And that no expense of any Braine meet for bread to feede men, be walted byon feeding of dogges oz other beattes, nevther that any bee spent in making stuffe called Starche, as of late there bath bene discottered Mone fuffered great quantity expended in that baine mat starch of any ter, being in no fort to be fuffered to continue, Granie. the rather also for that there are other things not hurtfull to the foode of man, that may ferue for fuch purpoles, if fuch purpoles at least were requilite.

Mble poore prople to be fet to worke.

That the Justices be araightly commanded to fee by all good meanes, that the able people bee let on worke in houses of Correction proutded and furnished, and there idle bagabounds to be vunished.

Stockes of monep for promilion of workes for pooje prople.

That the Juffices doe their beff to have conuenient stockes of money or wares, to be proutded in every Division, or other places according to the Statute, for letting the poore on worke, and the Justices to vie all other good and politique meanes within their feueral Dis uilions, to continue and maintaine the pooze people in worke within the Parity, or at the furthelf within the Hundred, or Division, and namely in clothing Countreyes to charge the Clothiers, that have in former times gapned tontime their by that trade, not now in this time of dearth to leave off his trade, whereby the pooze may be set on worke.

Clothiers to worke folkes.

Soubiers burt, and ims to be relieued in their bwels ling places.

That the maimed and hurt Souldiour, and all other impotent persons, bee carefully feene potent prople, buto to bee relieued within their feuerall pas rithes. Hundreds or Divitions, according to the Lawe therein prouided: and that where the provisions formerly made, and affelled byon the houtholders in every Parith bee not sufficient. it may bee nowe for this time of dearth charitably encreased. And where any Parish is not able to give sufficient relief to such their pooze, that Parish to have the supply of such other parifies neere adiopning, as haure fewer pooze, and are better able to give reliefe. And no bas gabonde of flurdie begger, of any that may otherwise get their liuing by their labours, bee luffered fuffered to wander abroad bnder colour of beaging in any Towne, fielde oz high way, and that the Austices doe presently give order that there be able persons appointed, and sufficient. ly weaponed, to affift the Constables of every Towne to attache fuch bagabondes, both in their Townes, fieldes and high waves, and to commit them to prison without bayle of any fuch, but as two of the Justices of the Beace within that Division chall order. And if any Township hall not observe this order, for the attaching a punishing of the said bagabondes. then the Judices thall let due punishment by fine boon the whole Towneship, or byon such parties in the Towne, as thall be found in tault.

Where in some partes of the Realme, divers That no mil-Millers, who ought only to ferue foz grinding to be commen of Come that hall be brought to their milles, Come, not to have becunne lately a very corrupt trade, to be fell ineale, but contmon byers of Come, both in markets, and the true grins out of markets, and the same doe arinde into come brought, meale, and doe ble as Badgers, or otherwife to mealurable fell the same at markets and in other places, tolle thefe breve feafons, seeking therby an inordinate gaine, besides the miluling of other mens Corne brought thither to bee around, by delay of arindina, or b worle is, by changing and altering of their good. Com to the worfe: It is thought bery necessary, that the Austices of the Beace who are not owners by any title of any Willes, not matters of land: loads to any Millers, thall first inhibite at Abillers byon paine both of impliforment and fine, to ble any fuch trade of buying of any graine to be to attenb to ding of the

be folde either in Corne or meale, but to charge them to continue the orderly ble of arinding of all maner of Come that halbe brought to them, in reasonable good fort, and byon reasonable Tolle. And for better performance hereof some of the Justices not affectionated to the Willers, thall some time personally themseluss resort to the milles to overfee the doings of the faid ADilfers, and compell them to doe their dueties. And where none of the Judices can as need thall be, weekely looke thereto personally, they hall appoint certaine bonell persons weekely to attend therto, and to enforme themselves of the poorer fort, how they are bled in this time of dearth, for their arinding and their Toll, and present the defaults to the Justices, to be speedily reformed with all due seueritie.

Conferences to be had bes twirt the Jus flicesof Peace in the Shires, and the princis pall officers of Cities and townes cors unlions of Graine, for the inhabitants in Cities and colpolate Townes.

Item, where there are within the circuite of any Shire, or thereto adiogning any Cities that are incorporated as Townes within themfelues, or any other Cownes incorporate, that have by good authoritie Justices of Beace of potate for pro- their owne inhabitants, for that commonly fuch Cities and Cownes have their greatest number of boutholders that are no owners of graine, but have common Bakers, & Biewers, must of necessitie buy a promide their Corne or Deale at the Markets neere thereto, to ferue all other the inhabitants and reliants within the faid Cities and Townes: for the provision of all fuch Cities & Townes, it halbe necellary that the Justices of the Deace of the Shires nert to the same Cities and Cownes thall have a meeting and conference with the head Officers of the layd Cities and Townes, howe and in what good manner the Bakers and Breme ers, and other housbolders that shall also have neede to provide Corne or Deale for the necesfarie ble of the prinate housholdes, may be prouided at the Markets neere to the same. And after due conference had hereof, there shall bee by the Austices of Beace, and the foresaide head Officers some good orders let downe, such as both may ferue for the needefull ble of the same Townes and Cities, and also may not by abuse give cause of railing of prices in the Markets a Countries adjorning. And where there shall be adiopning to the same Cities & Townes, oz not farre diffant, divers Shires, (as in many places such is the lituation of them) there some of the Justices of every Shire to adiopning, oz not farre diffant, wall ble fuch conference and take such orders with the laide Officers, as as fore is mentioned. And in such cases the Justices of every fuch Shire halbe enformed mittually from the one Shire buto the other, of the needefull providions to bee made from time to time for the laide Cities and Townes, so as every Shire may proportionably reelde reafor nable fuccour and reliefe out of their Markets to the Puruevois of to the Bakers, a Brewers as chall be requilite without burthening of the one, more then the other may reasonably beare. And if neede shall require, the aforesaide mincivall Officers hall not refuse to acquaint the Justices, from whence the provision that bee bought and provided, howe fuch provisions so had and bought in Markets are frent, that by colour of fuch prouisions no abuse be commit-C.tt.

ted to encrease the prices, and so to leave the poore bnable to be relieued.

fiber for play reservented from the Justice of the Justices of peace in the bodges of the Shires.

If there bee any speciall part within any Shire, that hath as a libertie by speciall Commissions any Justices of the Peace within the same, the Shirife of the Shire hall send but the principall owner or Officer of such Libertie, notice of these orders, and hall charge them that the Justices of the Peace within such Libertie doe their dueties for execution of airhese orders, as farre foorth as shall be requisite, and therein also to be by conference the adust of some other Justices next adiopning.

Regard to flap; all transposs tation of Grapne out, of the realme,

That in all Counties maritimme where Pozts oz Creeks are, by which any Cozne may be carried out of the Realme, though also there are Commissioners appointed under the great Seale of England, to take care that no Come be thipped or laden in any belief to palle out of the Realme: Ver neverthelelle, the Juffices of the Peace that are not placed in that Commistion, if they be no owners of Come to fell, thall also vse their diligence to stay such lading of Come, either in Ports or Creekes, or boon any Rivers leading to the same. And if the foresaide Comissioners shall not dotheir dueties therein by authoritie of their commission, then any other Justice by authozitie of these orders wall make flay of all fuch transportation, and in his fodoing, halbe allowed and maintained, And this is thought meet to be in this fort directed. for that it may be doubted, that amongest so many as are appointed in the foresaid Commillion against transportation, some may bee mistaken.

millaken, being themlelues either transpozters, or friends or fauourers to transporters, or negligent in the execution of the charge committed to them.

That the Juffices of the Beace doe once eue gertificate to ry moneth certific their doings and procee be mabe of the dings by force of these instructions buto the these Diders Sheriffe of the larde Countie, in which certifis the Sheriffe, cate they thall also make certificate of fuch Tufices as thall be absent from any of these seruis to the prime ces, and the true cause of their absence, and shal in enery source also certifie the bsuall prices of all hindes of Graine in their markets for that moneth past: Of all which the same Sheriffe thall certifie to the Prinie counfell without any delay, so as he doe certifie once in every fourtie dayes at the furthest, and so as also the default in any Au-Aice that halbe absent without necessary cause, what Juffices may be duely confidered, and reformed by aus be ablent from thozitie of her Maiesties Counsell, as reason that such as shall require: whereby such persons as are pla, will out mit ced as Justices for their credite, may not cons not attend. tinue in those roomes wherein they wall bee cet, and their founde not disposed to attende such necessary there be neche. and godly feruices as this is, but that others of better disposition may supply those roomes, if there hall bee neede of any such number, as in most places it is thought not bery needes full, the number of late peeres beeing in common opinion more hurtfullthen profitable to Austice.

Andifany halloffend against the true meaning of these instructions, or of any part thereof, or thall ble any limiter meane to the defraudina

Erecution of monethly to and he to cers tific the fame

the fernice, mitl'out mit map be difplas rounics, if supplied.

ding thereof, that such be severely punished according to the Lawes: and so, such obstinate persons as shall not conforme themselves, the Justices shall at their pleasure binde them to appeare before the Avenes Maiestes privile Counsell by a day certaine, there to be surther dealt with by severe punishment, so, the better ensample of all others.

Orders, to be executed by the fuftices of Peace, in places where they shall thinks conuenient, 1594.

Jet, to take viewe of the number of Ale-houses, vietailing houses, and tipling houses in every Towns, parish, Utiliage, and Pamiet within their Jurisdictions: and byon view had, to consider what number of them are necellary and fitte for every Towne, Parith, Tillage, and Pamlet to continue: And thereupon to discharge the superduous number, and such as are immeete to keepe the same, and to allowe a convenient number, and no more.

2. They which thall be allowed, to be of homest convertation, a that have no other meanes to live by, and to give newe bandes to her Maitefies telties ble, to perfourme the orders following, and such of them as refule to bee bound, not to be permitted to continue to keep any Aleboute, that they ferue no Beere, or Ale to any Alebour keeper, Wictualler, or Tipler, but at luch Rate, and price, as by the Judices of Peace that he fer downe, and appropried by authoritie of the flatute of 23.44.8. Cap.4. And yet the fame to bee well fodden, and well brewed of wholesome Braine, as it ought to be, byon paine, ac, to be imposed by the Justices.

Bitaffing, or Tipling boule.

4. Chat no Vitailers, Tiplers, and Aleshouse-keepers have in their houses, or one permit to be brought into their houses any Cards, Dice, or Cables, nor to suffer any to play in their houses, pardes, or backstoes at any Cards, Tables, Dice, or other bula whill games.

the condition of their Bond.

6. That no Witailer, Tipler, or Ale-house keeper shall permit, a suffer any person, or persons to lodge in his house about a day a a night, but such as he wil answer sor, as the Statutes vet in force doe require.

7. To give straight order and charge to estery Constable, or other superiour Officer, to whom it may appertaine, that every of them mall every fifteene dayes fearch, and enquire of the faid a other like disorders, as by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, they are commanded and required. And if it hall feeme to the Justices, that the petie Constable be either a witatter, or one that thall fauour the witat. lers in their faultes, some other meeter person to be appointed to make the layde Inquilition and Certificate. 8 That Inquitition bee made in what places Mault is commonly made to bee folde, by fuch as are called Mauliters, and who they be, and to take order, that by buying and Engroß fing of barley to make Mault, they do not thereby floje by greater quantitie of Mault, then they blually bring to Markets, thereby towards the end of the peere to encreale the price thereof excellinely, of which abuse the Justices are to take care to reforme the same.

